CHAPTER 286

AN ACT to create 39.024 (3) (j) of the statutes, authorizing the co-ordinating committee for higher education to enter into interstate agreements to facilitate the use of higher educational facilities.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

39.024 (3) (j) of the statutes is created to read:

39.024 (3) (j) Interstate agreements. The co-ordinating committee, with the approval of the joint committee on finance if the legislature is in session or the board on government operations if the legislature is recessed or adjourned, or the governing boards of the systems under its jurisdiction, with the approval of the co-ordinating committee and the joint committee on finance if the legislature is in session or the board on government operations if the legislature is recessed or adjourned may enter into agreements or understandings which include remission of non-resident tuition for designated categories of students at state institutions of higher education with appropriate state agencies and institutions of higher education in other states to facilitate utilization of public higher educational institutions of this state and other states. Such agreements and understandings shall have as their purpose the mutual improvement of educational advantages for residents of this state and such other states or institutions of other states with whom agreements are made.
